5. Additional Terms and Conditions.

- a. The Client agrees to provide a meal for the Photographer(s) if the Photographer's attendance is required for greater than five (5) hours.
- b. The Client agrees to give ample warning to the Photographer of key events at the wedding to give the Photographer time to prepare (i.e., bouquet toss, cake cutting, speeches, etc.). This is typically done with the either the wedding coordinator, or the DJ. But if neither of those is available then the Client will be the communicator.
- c. The Photographer will endeavor to get photographs of as many guests as possible, which may be limited by guests' cooperation in having their photo taken.
- d. The Client agrees that the Photographer shall be given precedence in taking photographs over guests with cell phone cameras and other devices. The Photographer cannot be held responsible for lack of photographs or poor quality of photographs if guests are interfering with the Photographer's work.
- e. The Client acknowledges the Photographer may be limited in scope by rules of the location of the ceremony and/or reception. (i.e., flash photography may not be allowed within a Church).

6. Copyright. The Photographer shall maintain the copyright of all photographs. The Photographer grants the Client permission to make copies of the images for personal use by the Client and the Client's family and friends. Sale, publication, or any other commercial use is specifically prohibited without the prior written consent of the Photographer.

7. Cancellation.

By Client. The Client may cancel this Agreement at any time prior to the event. Upon cancellation, the Client will be entitled to a refund of any monies paid, except for the non-refundable deposit.

By Photographer. The Photographer may cancel this Agreement in the event of an emergency. If that happens, all money will be refunded (including deposits) and every attempt will be made to find a suitable replacement photographer.

8. Dispute Resolution and Legal Fees. In the event of a dispute arising out of this Contract that cannot be resolved by mutual agreement, the Parties agree to engage in mediation. If the matter cannot be resolved through mediation, and legal action ensues, the successful Party will be entitled to its legal fees, including, but not limited to its attorneys' fees.
9. Severability. In the event any provision of this Contract is deemed invalid or unenforceable, in whole or in part, that part shall be severed from the remainder of the Contract and all other provisions should continue in full force and effect as valid and enforceable.
10. Legal and Binding Contract. This Contract is legal and binding between the Parties as stated above. This Contract may be entered into and is legal and binding both in the United States and throughout Europe. The Parties each represent that they have the authority to enter into this Contract.
11. Governing Law and Jurisdiction. The Parties agree that this Contract shall be governed by the State and/or County in which the wedding will be held.
12. Entire Agreement. The Parties acknowledge and agree that this Contract represents the entire agreement between the Parties. In the event that the Parties desire to change, add, or otherwise modify any terms, they shall do so in writing to be signed by both Parties.

The Parties agree to the terms and conditions set forth above as demonstrated by their signatures as follows:
